Emerald Rain Productions Presents

YOUNG ZOMBIES IN LOVE

The Fright-Flick Pop-Rock Romp
At the Players Theatre August 14-28

Emerald Rain Productions presents — direct from two smash San Francisco engagements — Young Zombies in Love, the fright-flick pop-rock romp, as part of the New York International Fringe Festival at The Players Theatre (115 Macdougall St. between 3rd & Bleecker) August 14-28. For tickets and information, visit FringeNYC.org or call (212) 279-4488 (outside NY: 1-888-FringeNYC).

Young Zombies in Love, by Damian Hess with songs by Gaby Alter, is directed by Jackson Gay.

A new musical in the fractured tradition of Rocky Horror Show and Little Shop of Horrors, Young Zombies in Love tells the story of two teens from Tombtown, USA and the tragic yet wacky turn their love affair takes after one of them is hacked up by an undead cheerleader. Can the young lovers fend off an onslaught of their zombified peers to stand together against apathy and brain-munching?

Garnering a sheath of rave reviews in its two smash San Francisco engagements, the show captured the admiration of no less an authority than rock legend Neil Young who called the show, “A great new musical.”
